1 Dear DOJ

I am a Mac User and have been assaulted from Microsoft for 10 plus years. I am ashamed that you are simply slapping their wrist. That is what I should do to you. They continually thwart competitors, ie Apple, and strongarm their 3 standards: on the entire computing world. What are you folks thinking here!

This company needs to be split up into 2 business units at the VERY least, one for Operating Systems and the other for Productivity Software, or you will be a wimp in many eyes, mine especially

Do Whats Right

Please email me for further discussion
